anyone have a great non-vegetarian chili recipe they will share The way I fix my chili is to use Chili-O mix from French's and then doctor it up. I brown the hamburger with onion and bell pepper. Drain. In a large pot add drained meat mix, tomatoes, chili-o mix, pinto beans, and a pretty good bit of cinnamon. I let that simmer for a bit and then serve with saltines and ritz crackers. Everybody seems to love it. amy anyone have a great non-vegetarian chili recipe they will share O.k. here goes: 2-3 lb. coarsely chopped beef chuck roast, brisket, or venison shoulder. 1 large yellow onion 1 14 oz. can skinned, cooked tomatoes 1 14 oz. can dark red kidney beans 1 cup water 1/2 cup KC Masterpiece barbecue sauce 3 tablespoons chili powder 3 tablespoons hungarian paprika 1 tablespoon garlic powder 1 tablespoon creole seasoning 1 teaspoon cumin three or four smoked ancho chilies seeded and thinly sliced Brown meat in large heavy dutch oven, add onions and cook until translucent. Drain grease. Add half of each of the spices and all the other ingredients and cook over a very low heat all day, six to eight hours, adding water if necessary. Add remaining spices about a half hour before serving. top if you like with shreddd cheddar cheese and sour cream -for a different taste, substitute smoked beef brisket for part of the meat. mel
